For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who _____, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, "The righteous shall live by faith." Romans 1:16-17

He will render to each one according to his works: to those who by _____ in _____ seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. Romans 2:6-8

But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and Prophets bear witness to it—the righteousness of God through _____ in Jesus Christ for all who _____. Romans 3:21-22

For there is no distinction: for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by _____. Romans 3:22-25

What then shall we say was gained by Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham _____ God, and it was counted to him as righteousness." Romans 4:1-3

Therefore, since we have been justified by _____, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 5:1

Do you not know that all of us who have been _____ into Christ Jesus were _____ into his death? We were buried therefore with him by _____ into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. Romans 6:3-4

But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become _____ from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. Romans 6:17-18
